The Kingdom... Here and Now

"What is this 'good news'?" The Greek, eu-angelion, from which comes the Latin evangelium, is translated into modern English as "gospel". This is a variant of the earlier 'God-Spel' or 'good news'. And what is this good news? The Good News is that the "Kingdom of Heaven" is near. "Kingdom of Heaven" can be a very misleading term. To many, it may be identified with "heaven", the "place up there" where we hope to go to after death...if we have behaved ourselves.

In fact, it is important to be aware that the term in this context has far less to do with a future life than with our life here in this world. The other gospels speak more directly of the "kingdom of God" which, in fact, is what Matthew also means. However, Matthew's gospel was written for a Christian community consisting primarily of converted Jews. In their tradition, they were very reluctant ever to use the name of God directly, and so Matthew throughout his gospel speaks of God in indirect ways.

Again, "kingdom" for us suggests the territory ruled over by a king. The Greek word the evangelists use is basileia from the word basileus, which means a 'king'. But basileia is better translated as 'rule', 'reign' or 'kingship'. It indicates the power of being a king rather than the place over which one is king. To be 'in the kingdom', then, is not to be in a particular place, either in this life or the next. Rather it is to be living one's life - wherever we are - under the loving power of God. It is to be in a relationship of loving submission to one's God and Lord and to be in an environment where values like truth, love, compassion, justice, freedom, community, and peace all prevail.

The way to enter that relationship is, in Jesus' words, to "repent". The Greek word which is rendered by many translations as 'repent' is metanoia. This word implies a radical change in one's thinking; it means looking at life in a completely new way, making what is now sometimes called a 'paradigm shift'. This new way of seeing life is spelt out through the whole of the Christian Testament. It is only when we begin to make this radical change that we begin to become part of that Kingdom, that we begin effectively to come under the influence of God's power in our lives. We begin to see things the way God sees them, and our behaviour changes accordingly. The call is not just to be sorry for past sins, and not to do them any more. There has to be a complete change of direction, a deep involvement in doing God's work. That work involves working with others for an end to poverty and destitution, to hunger and joblessness, to communal and religious hatred, to rampant greed, ambition and shameless consumerism, and to create a world of love and care - the special attributes of God.

This is a message not just for Catholics or Christians, but for people everywhere. The Kingdom goes far beyond the boundaries of the Church, and the Kingdom is being realised in many ways in places where Christianity has yet to penetrate. A majority of the world's population does not know the Gospel of Jesus, but that does not mean that the values of the Kingdom are absent. We must learn not to see Christianity or Catholicism in sectarian terms - 'them' and 'us'. The message of Jesus is a vision of life for all humanity and should be communicated as such."

In today's Second Reading, too, Paul warns against divisions in the Christian family. It seems that the Christians in Corinth were dividing into factions and identifying themselves with various community leaders: "I am for Paul", "I am for Cephas (Peter)"; even "I am for Christ". It is clear that such divisions are harmful. All can only be for one person, the One who suffered, died and rose for them, the One in whose name all of them were baptised - Jesus their Lord.

We have, unfortunately, many such divisions among Christians today - "I am a Catholic", "I am an Anglican... a Lutheran... a Methodist... a Presbyterian..." The list is, alas, endless. This is not the kind of family that Jesus intended. Such a dysfunctional family is not in a good position to give effective witness to the Good News of truth and love and fellowship which Jesus prayed for at the Last Supper (John 17).

Today's call is asking us not just to fit Jesus into our chosen way of living, but to fit ourselves into his vision of life. In doing so, we are not making a sacrifice; we are on to a sure winner where we can only gain."

Cursillo Weekend

Where is Christ in your life now? Take time to reflect and redirect your path. A Catholic Cursillo weekend can give you that time, and the spiritual food you need for reflection. Everyone is welcome. Cursillo provides a chance for people to recognize and appreciate the presence of the Holy Spirit; touching their hearts and minds and allowing them to better understand His abundant love for each and every one of us. Those who attend a Cursillo Weekend are given an understanding that it is possible to live as a Catholic Christian in normal everyday life and bring His presence and message to our homes and communities. When: Men's: Feb. 2-5, 2023; Women's: Feb. 9-11, 2023. Where: Michaelite House, 2751 Sunningdale Rd. W., London On. N6H 5L2 Cost: $200 [funding available to those unable to meet this expense]. Please contact Sharon Walsh at 519-393-6750 or kinkorite@hotmail.com.

The Pope Francis Fund
Grant Application Process is Open

The Pope Francis Fund was established by Bishop Fabbro in 2019 with proceeds given annually to agencies that directly serve the needs of people who are underprivileged. In 2022, 11 organizations received a total of $46,500 in financial support. The application process for grants from the Pope Francis Fund is now open. Charitable organizations in the Diocese that are dedicated to working with the poor and marginalized are encouraged to apply for grants. The link to the application process and grant criteria is at www.dol.ca/pff. All the faithful are asked to share this information with local agencies who could qualify for funding.

St. Peter's Parish Centre Update

In December 2022 it was announced that St. Peter's Parish Centre is scheduled for demolition in 2023. This week we met with representatives from parish ministries, committees, and groups currently occupying space in the Parish Centre and included the option to relocate to space at St. Michael's Parish for groups from our Family of Parishes. Over the next several weeks, groups from both St. Peter's and St. Michael's will determine their space needs at St. Michael's Parish. Space at the Parish will be determined and assigned based on priority and availability. By mid-April, all the parish ministries, committees, and groups occupying space in the Parish Centre will have been re-located.

Site reviews and planning for the demolition of the building have started. Once the building has been completely vacated in April 2023, and with the required approvals, demolition can commence.

Long-term plans for the site have not been determined, but we will keep parishioners informed about the future of the land north of the Cathedral.

Rediscovering the Liturgy

A parishioner recently wrote:

"When COVID attacked the whole globe in 2020, for the first time in history, churches around the world were closed. As a cradle Catholic, for the first time in my life I wasn't able to get to mass and participate in the Easter services.

I remember experiencing many feelings-sadness, confusion, bewilderment. It all seemed so strange and weird. When the Cathedral re-opened I felt gratitude and I was thankful I could go back to mass. I told myself that I would never, to the best of my ability, take going to Mass for granted again."

Sometimes we don't appreciate things until they are gone. In our time away over the almost three years since COVID began, many discovered other forms of prayer, deepened their spirituality, and uncovered the riches of their faith life. Finally being able to return to the celebration of the Eucharist and engaging in the faith community in person, people came hungry; not only to encounter Jesus in the Eucharist but for knowledge, desire for continual renewal in their faith journey, and wanting to live out their call to discipleship in more concrete ways in our community.

In February, we will begin a series in the bulletin entitled Rediscovering the Liturgy. Our hope is to assist in "opening up the liturgy", understanding what we do and why we do what we do when we come to Mass and gaining a deeper appreciation of the gift of the liturgy in our journey of faith. Our new publication, Holy Matters, Easter edition will introduce a Q&A column where we are invited to submit questions on all aspects of the faith, liturgy, sacraments, teachings, etc.

We hope that through this discovery and rediscovery we will all say, as our parishioner so profoundly stated: "I will never take going to Mass for granted again."

Income Tax Receipts. For inquiries/questions, please contact the parish office at 519-433-6689 / 519-432-3475 during office hours, Mon-Fri 8:30 am-3:30 pm. Thank you.

Sunday of the Word of God Sunday Jan. 22, 2023

"The relationship between the Risen Lord, the community of believers and sacred Scripture is essential to our identity as Christians. Without the Lord who opens our minds to them, it is impossible to understand the Scriptures in depth. Yet the contrary is equally true: without the Scriptures, the events of the mission of Jesus and of his Church in this world would remain incomprehensible. Hence, Saint Jerome could rightly claim: "Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ"

Consequently, I hereby declare that the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time is to be devoted to the celebration, study and dissemination of the word of God. This Sunday of the Word of God will thus be a fitting part of that time of the year when we are encouraged to strengthen our bonds with the Jewish people and to pray for Christian unity. This is more than a temporal coincidence: the celebration of the Sunday of the Word of God has ecumenical value, since the Scriptures point out, for those who listen, the path to authentic and firm unity.

Regular reading of sacred Scripture and the celebration of the Eucharist make it possible for us to see ourselves as part of one another. As Christians, we are a single people, making our pilgrim way through history, sustained by the Lord, present in our midst, who speaks to us and nourishes us. A day devoted to the Bible should not be seen as a yearly event but rather a year-long event, for we urgently need to grow in our knowledge and love of the Scriptures and of the risen Lord, who continues to speak his word and to break bread in the community of believers. For this reason, we need to develop a closer relationship with sacred Scripture; otherwise, our hearts will remain cold and our eyes shut, struck as we are by so many forms of blindness.

Sacred Scripture and the sacraments are thus inseparable. When the sacraments are introduced and illumined by God's word, they become ever more clearly the goal of a process whereby Christ opens our minds and hearts to acknowledge his saving work. We should always keep in mind the teaching found in the Book of Revelation: the Lord is standing at the door and knocking. If anyone should hear his voice and open for him, he will come in and eat with them (cf. 3:20). Christ Jesus is knocking at our door in the words of sacred Scripture. If we hear his voice and open the doors of our minds and hearts, then he will enter our lives and remain ever with us."

Make known in us, O Lord, the abundance of your mercy and, in the power of your Spirit, remove the division between Christians, that your Church may appear more clearly as a sign raised high among the nations and that the world, enlightened by your Spirit, may believe in the Christ whom you have sent.

Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Spiritual Pondering

Mother Mary sets the example of pondering all things in her heart for us. In this section, we will pose questions based on the week's Gospel to ponder on. Spiritual conversations help us to grow in our own discipleship and is one way to evangelize—sharing the Good News. You are invited to participate by self-pondering or sharing your thoughts, if you are inclined. Peace. (Debbie Walsh, dwalsh@dol.ca)
